

Application closing date:

5pm (AEST), on the Course commencement date in your Offer Letter for Semester 1, 2024

TAFE NSW is committed to helping international students develop specialised skills and attain the qualifications they need, to achieve their personal and professional goals. There are limited scholarships available to eligible applicants who want to pursue their education at TAFE NSW in Australia. Your application will be assessed for the following scholarship grants:

- Total Scholarship value of up to a maximum of $2,000 (AUD) based on merit. The scholarship will be applied as $500 credit against your course tuition fees in each semester until the total Scholarship value is used.
- 15% Scholarship based on merit, which will be applied as credit against the standard TAFE NSW course tuition fees, payable each semester, for the entire duration of the Higher education course only.

The scholarship amount is not transferable or redeemable for cash.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the scholarship, you must meet all of the following requirements.

- Applicants must be a new international student who is enrolled, or intending to enrol, at TAFE NSW in an approved VET or higher education course which has a minimum duration of 1 year and commences in Semester 1, 2024, or be a current international student, enrolled at TAFE NSW, who has completed a course and is enrolled in a new approved VET or higher education course that has a minimum duration of 1 year and commences in Semester 1, 2024. However, the applicant must not be a current student who is continuing to study in Semester 1, 2024, as part of a packaged course offering. ELICOS-only students, or students who have packaged with ELICOS commencing in Semester 1, 2024, are also ineligible.
- To be considered for 15% Scholarship for the full duration of the Higher Education course only, the applicant must be a new international student who is intending to enrol at TAFE NSW in Semester 1, 2024, in an approved higher education course, or a pathway package leading to a higher education course, and have an academic achievement of Higher Credit (70%) or above. The applicant must not be a current student who is continuing to study in Semester 1, 2024, as part of a packaged course offering. ELICOS-only students, or students who have packaged with ELICOS commencing in Semester 1, 2024, are also ineligible.
- Applicants must meet all of the applicable TAFE NSW enrolment requirements, including visa requirements.
- Unless otherwise approved by TAFE NSW, applicants must commence their approved VET or higher education course in Semester 1, 2024, and cannot defer their commencement date.

Any scholarship awarded, is on the basis that the recipient maintains an active enrolment status in their course and maintains a satisfactory academic progress. Any failure and repetition of units will not be covered by the Scholarship awarded. Scholarships may be terminated if the recipient's enrolment status changes (e.g. they withdraw from their course) or their visa status changes.

If you are awarded the scholarship, any other TAFE NSW scholarship, grant, or bursary that you currently hold will be rescinded.

How to apply

1. Submit a TAFE NSW application to study in a VET/ higher education course for a minimum duration of 1 year at TAFE NSW, commencing in Semester 1, 2024.
2. Download and complete the scholarship application form from the TAFE NSW International website, and attach all required supporting documents.
3. Any failure and repetition of units will not be covered by the Scholarship awarded. Your scholarship may be terminated if your enrolment status changes (e.g. you withdraw from your course) or your visa status changes.
- 2.3 If you are awarded the scholarship, any other TAFE NSW scholarship, grant, or bursary that you currently hold will be rescinded.

3 Scholarship offer

- 3.1 TAFE NSW will convene a panel to assess all valid applications. Applications will be assessed on a merit basis, and based on your responses in your application and the scholarship eligibility requirements. The panel will, in its sole discretion, determine the award of the scholarship (if any). The decision of the panel will be final, and no correspondence about the decision will be entered into.
- 3.2 If your application is successful, you will be notified via email within three weeks of the closing date, and will receive an International Student Scholarship Grant letter to be signed and returned by you, as acceptance of the scholarship. The scholarship will not be awarded unless TAFE NSW receives a signed International Student Scholarship Grant letter from you, within the required time period. If you do not wish to accept the scholarship that you have been offered, you should immediately advise us in writing.
- 3.3 If, for any reason, you are unable to accept the scholarship offer, the offer will be given to the next suitable applicant as determined by the panel in its sole discretion.
- 3.4 All unsuccessful applicants will be notified via email of the outcome of their application.

4 Scholarship award and payment

- 4.1 On receiving the signed International Student Scholarship Grant letter as evidence of your acceptance of the scholarship, TAFE NSW will apply the scholarship to your enrolment record as outlined in the Scholarship Grant letter. The available Scholarship Awards are:
 - (a) Total Scholarship value of up to a maximum of $2,000 (AUD) based on merit. The scholarship will be applied as $500 credit against your course tuition fees in each semester until the total Scholarship value is used.
 - (b) 15% Scholarship based on merit, which will be applied as credit against the standard TAFE NSW course tuition fees, payable each semester, for the entire duration of the Higher Education course only.

- 4.2 All scholarship amounts are in Australian dollars. The scholarship amount is not transferable or redeemable for cash.
- 4.3 By accepting the scholarship, you will be required to act as an ambassador of TAFE NSW and agree to participate in all reasonable marketing and promotional activities relating to the scholarship (including without limitation to being recorded, photographed, filmed, or interviewed), and that TAFE NSW may use such marketing and promotional material in any format or medium, in its sole discretion, for the purpose of marketing and promoting the scholarship.
- 4.4 You are responsible for determining any taxation or Centrelink payment implications relating to the scholarship. TAFE NSW is not liable for the payment of any tax or any other obligations you may incur as a result of accepting the scholarship.
- 4.5 TAFE NSW will not be liable for any loss (including without limitation, indirect, special, or consequential loss), cost, expense, or damage, which is suffered or incurred by you in connection with the scholarship, except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law.

5 Scholarship termination

- 5.1 TAFE NSW may terminate your scholarship at any time if you:
- discontinue or withdraw from your course, or your enrolment status is inactive;
 - fail to meet the eligibility requirements of the scholarship;
 - fail to comply with these scholarship terms and conditions;
 - are suspended or excluded from TAFE NSW, or commit a breach of student conduct and discipline; and/or
 - have provided incorrect, false, or misleading information, or have withheld relevant information in relation to your application.
- 5.2 If your scholarship is terminated, you will not receive any further credits and you may be required to repay some, or all, of your scholarship to TAFE NSW.

6 Variations

- 6.1 TAFE NSW may vary these scholarship terms and conditions at any time, without prior notice. TAFE NSW may vary the scholarship or cancel the scholarship on offer at any time, but will advise you of any such variation or cancellation.
