Withdrawing from your studies

Students who withdraw must notify the campus/Region in writing

If you are withdrawing

- before the Course Start Date, you will be eligible for a refund of your Student fee or Concession fee (*See Note 1).
- after the Course Start Date, you may be eligible for a partial refund of your fee.

If you are withdrawing from your studies you will be asked to identify if you are discontinuing your studies or transferring to another Registered Training Provider.

Note 1: For courses of 1 week duration or less, the student must advise of withdrawal at least five (5) business days before Course Start Date.

Note 2: Written notification of the student's intent to 'withdraw/discontinue' their studies is either by this form completed by the student, or this form completed by a staff member with supporting evidence of student's request, except as per Note 5 there is/has been no contact with the student.

Note 3: Withdrawal effective date is when the student provides formal notification to TAFE NSW of their intention to withdraw, as per note 2.

Note 4: A Fee Notification will be provided to the student for any fees that remain outstanding at the time of withdrawal. Where payment is not made by the due date, TAFE NSW may take action to refer the amount to an agency for collection.

Note 5: TAFE NSW will take action to withdraw students from study where:

- Students have not demonstrated participation and/or attendance in their study on a regular basis.
TAFE NSW will attempt contact to determine their status of continuing enrolment or withdrawal from their studies. TAFE NSW will assist students to re-commence studies, however if no response is received within times specified, action will be taken to withdraw/close the enrolment.
- The student cannot demonstrate competency in all applicable practical/theory/workplace components of study.
TAFE NSW is under no obligation to offer repeat attempts at a Unit of Competency or continue an enrolment where competency is not demonstrated.

Fee Refunds

Refund of your fee to be given in the following circumstances:

- You enrolled in a course/qualification that has been cancelled by the campus or TAFE NSW.
- You have overpaid the Student fee or Concession fee.
- You have paid the Student fee or Concession fee and are then granted a fee exemption – refer to Fee Exemption Application Form
- You formally advise the campus of your withdrawal, prior to the Course Start Date.
- Where the course duration is 1 week or less, you formally advise the campus of your withdrawal five (5) business days before the Course Start Date.
- You formally advise the campus of your withdrawal after the Course Start Date and you have pre-paid your Student fee for future-dated fee instalments as per the fee instalment schedule of your enrolled course/qualification.

Note 6: 'Other circumstances' for a fee refund includes where your course is cancelled or you have overpaid your Student fee or Concession fee. In these circumstances, you will not be required to complete or sign the refund application, however we will contact you regarding Credit/Debit card and/or bank details to process a refund payment.

Note 7: Refunds are to be made to the student, organisation or third party who originally paid the relevant fee.

Note 8: There are no refunds for incidental fees

Note 9: Original payment via Credit/Debit Card and refund requested to that same card requires the first six (6) and last four (4) card digits to be obtained at the time the refund is processed. If you are entitled to a refund, a TAFE NSW Staff member will be in contact with you shortly to securely obtain information related to your Credit/Debit card or bank details.

Note 10: TAFE NSW will not ask for your full Credit/Debit card number at any time.

Student Privacy

Information collected by TAFE NSW (the New South Wales TAFE Commission) during a student's enrolment and attendance will be used for the purposes of student record administration, identification, communication, state and national reporting, program monitoring, evaluation and surveys. Student information will be held securely and disposed of securely when no longer needed.

The information may be disclosed when required by law and to government departments and agencies, including for example to the Services Australia (Centrelink), the Department of Veterans' Affairs, the NSW Department of Education, the Department of Home Affairs, Transport for NSW, the Australian Skills Quality Authority, the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency, the Universities Admissions Centre, NSW Education Standards Authority and the National Centre for Vocational Education Research. To meet the requirements of Registered Training Organisations under the Apprenticeships and Traineeships Act 2001, apprentice and trainee information is provided to employers, Australian Apprenticeship Centres and Training Services NSW (or the relevant State Training Authority).

While the provision of the information requested on enrolment is not required by law, it is a requirement of TAFE NSW and your enrolment will not be accepted if it is not provided. You may correct your personal details by contacting us on 131 601 or via your TAFE NSW customer service centre or by using the TAFE NSW Student Portal.
