

Scholarship value:

Up to $4,000

Email: scholarships@tafensw.edu.au

If you've completed a course in Tourism, Travel or Hospitality in 2023 or 2024, you're eligible to apply for the prestigious Barrington Raymund Roberts Memorial Award.

Established by TAFE NSW in memory of the late Barrington Raymund Roberts, this scholarship is valued at up to $4,000 in value and can be used towards further study, training and work placement.

The winner of the 2015 Barrington Raymund Roberts Memorial Award, Billy Fox, used his prize win to travel to Singapore and gain valuable industry experience at the renowned Osia Restaurant.

Who was Barrington Raymund Roberts?

A prominent figure in the Tourism and Hospitality industry in the 1970's, his passion led to the building of the largest hospitality-training centre in the Asia Pacific Region - what is now known as TAFE NSW Ryde.

It was a result of his work and dedication that the profile of Tourism and Hospitality expanded in Australia and his legacy now lives on in the recipients of this Award.

How to apply

1. Send the completed scholarship application form and the supporting documents to scholarships@tafensw.edu.au by the closing date, 5 pm (AEDT), Tuesday 26 November 2024 (or any later closing date subsequently published by TAFE NSW). If your application is received after the closing date, is incomplete or does not meet the requirements set out in the scholarship terms and conditions, it will not be considered.
2. By submitting your scholarship application form, you accept the scholarship terms and conditions and are taken to have read them.
3. TAFE NSW will convene a panel to assess all valid applications. Applications will be assessed on a merit basis and based on your responses in your application and the scholarship eligibility requirements. Recommendations will be made to Lord's Taverners Tertiary Education Panel, which will, in its sole discretion, determine the award of the scholarship (if any). The decision of the panel will be final.
4. All applicants will be notified of the outcome, with successful applicants notified within 4 weeks of the closing date.

Frequently Asked Questions

What type of study/training or work placement can I undertake?

The award encourages further study/training or work placement in the Tourism, Travel and Hospitality industry in Australia or overseas. It is important to explain in your application why you have chosen your specific study/training or work placement to enable the selection panel to determine the merit of your proposal.

What is the value of the Barrington Raymund Roberts Memorial Award?

The value of the award is determined by the selection committee, based on the merit of the proposed study/training or work placement. The value of this award is $4,000.

Who will be on the selection committee?

Industry and TAFE NSW representatives

Will I need to attend an interview?

The selection committee will review all applications, and will invite the shortlisted finalists to attend an interview in Sydney.

What if I can't attend the interview in person

If you are invited to interview and cannot attend in person, video conference and telephone conference facilities are available. It is your responsibility to make the arrangements with your local TAFE NSW to access these facilities if required.

How do I make arrangements for my proposed study/training or work placement if I don't know if I will win?

- Make initial contact with your proposed study/training or work placement provider to establish the scheduled start and completion dates and related costs of the proposed program. The proposed study/training or work placement needs to start within three months of the winner being announced;
- Include details of the proposed study/training or work placement in your application;
- If confirmation of the study/training or work placement is available and you are invited to interview, bring the confirmation with you;
- If you are shortlisted by the selection committee, confirmation of your accepted proposal for study/training or work placement must be provided to be awarded the scholarship.
